Description

Pair of Louis XVI period gilt bronze wall sconces. They feature three lights supported by richly molded and chased branches. The base is decorated with acanthus leaves, and a ram's head supports the light arms. At the top, an urn surmounted by a pine cone and cascading laurel garlands. The original gilding is bright and vibrant, with a few stains and minor losses. The electrical system is a later addition and in working order. The mounting uses thick threads. Louis XVI period, late 18th century. Shipping: EUR30 within France, EUR80 within the EU, and EUR150 for the rest of the world.
