Description

It opens onto a glazed door, the lower part of which, curved, features a marquetry medallion motif of musical instruments. The upper part, with a molded cornice, is decorated with three alternating drapery motifs and passementerie. The lower part is undulating and terminates in four cabriole feet with gilt-bronze sabots. Two gilt-bronze ram's head figures adorn the corners. The glazed sides feature, at the bottom, a floral motif inlaid with light wood. The interior is entirely lined with fabric. Good original condition.
