Very beautiful Moroccan rug from Rabat dating from the 1960s-70s. ## The best colors are those of the details! Admittedly, not very old, but I bought it because its wool-on-wool construction and colors are of excellent quality and well-fixed. Its color intensity is unmistakable. ## Wool on wool = exceptional comfort. # Antique and modern Moroccan rugs are always dyed naturally, a practice stemming from the conservation requirements prescribed at the beginning of the 20th century by Marshal Liautey, a craftsman of the French protectorate, to Prosper Ricard, who was responsible for the preservation of Moroccan traditions and the conservation and rehabilitation of heritage. ## City rug measuring 175 cm wide by 300 cm long. # Urban art is often based on symmetrical geometries that give rise to repeating forms. infinity. They generally take the form of medallions whose center evokes "Al Kaaba" (the Prophet's tomb). The ivory medallion with plum-colored serrated lines surrounds the main motif, a lozenge of pale gray branches and flowers surrounding a plum and lavender-blue cruciferous flower. The lozenge is a recurring motif in decoration, ornamentation, knotted rugs, and other artistic works, not only because of its decorative form but also, and especially, for its symbolic meaning: the immortality of the soul. The beauty of this very beautiful, bright, and colorful piece will transcend your interior. The orange is magnificent, accompanied by violet, ivory, plum...
