

Pierre Charles Marquis (1798-1874) - Saint Zosimus And Saint Mary Of Egypt -

350 EUR

Signature : Pierre Charles Marquis (1798-1874)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 16 cm

Height : 22 cm

Description

Oil on canvas depicting Saint Zosimus and a lion uncovering the body of Saint Mary of Egypt.

Unsigned work with an attribution label on the back dated 1829, mentioning the painter

"Marquis" for Pierre Charles Marquis

(1798-1874). Molded painted wood frame.

Dimensions : 22 x 16 cm. Frame : 31 x 25.5 cm.

Condition report : fairly good, two old restorations and craquelure. Marquis is a painter known for having dealt almost exclusively with historical and biblical subjects. He exhibited one work per year at the Salon from 1833 to 1874.

His paintings are now in several museums and churches in France. Another sketch by the painter, of the same dimensions, is known for the painting "The Resurrection of Lazarus" from 1868, cited by curator Virginie Inguenaud in her

Dealer

Antiquités du Tourniquet

French antiques

Mobile : 0688142209

2 rue Barbecane

Aubeterre-sur-Dronne 16390 online article "From Burgundy to Brittany: The Resurrection of Lazarus by Pierre-Charles Marquis." Bibliography : Henry d'Escamps, 1875.

"Pierre-Charles Marquis, History Painter, His Life and Works." Paris, Victor Goupy. (Freely accessible on the BNF website).