Description

A long Directoire/Restoration style cherrywood bench. Its solid armrests are curved, and its high back features a stepped design at the top. The seat, reupholstered using traditional methods with horsehair, webbing, and springs, is covered with a primer fabric, allowing the buyer to choose the final upholstery. It rests on eight slightly saber-shaped legs, providing good stability and sturdiness. Circa 1820. In perfect condition after restoration, stripping, and waxing in our workshop. Length 188 cm - Depth 63.5 cm - Height 97.5 cm. Seat: Length 167 cm - Depth 49 cm - Height 43 cm. Ref. 150518
