Description

Attributed to Hendrik Hollander (1823-1884). This exquisite example of 19th-century European genre painting portrays a noble couple engaged in reading within a luxurious interior scene. The young aristocratic woman, elegantly positioned in her leather-upholstered armchair, is dressed in a beautiful white silk gown with a striking red velvet cape trimmed in soft fur draped gracefully over her shoulders. Her golden jewelry adorned with precious stones clearly indicates her high noble status and refined taste. Her gentleman companion, wearing a dark doublet with sleeves embellished with gold thread embroidery and a traditional ruff collar, carefully examines his book at a table covered with richly patterned fabric. The composition showcases masterful painting technique characteristic of Dutch artistic
