Description

An elegant Restoration period commode in light walnut, opening with three drawers adorned with bronze knobs. One drawer is concealed beneath the solid walnut top. Three further drawers. The front uprights are highlighted by half-columns characteristic of the style, resting on turned feet. A fine example of early 19th-century French craftsmanship (circa 1820-1830). The commode is sound and stable, with a lovely, warm patina. Delivery within mainland France: EUR100. Contact us for more information.
