Description

Created in the 1960s, this wooden group depicts a Roman soldier in traditional armor and helmet, skillfully captured while mounting his horse. The finely crafted details, from the soldier's animated pose to the hand-carved ornaments, attest to the high level of craftsmanship. Both the figure and the horse were carved from a single piece of wood. The high-quality workmanship reveals the beauty and finesse of the details, lending the subject a great deal of realism. Dimensions: Height 54 x Length 45 x Depth 20 cm. A certificate of authenticity guaranteeing the content of this listing will be drawn up and given to the buyer.
