Description

Charming oil on canvas depicting a young woman with a parasol, leaning against a low stone wall; it is signed lower left Eduardo Soria (1890 Santander - 1945). Eduardo Soria studied in Paris under Adolphe Déchenaud and François Flameng; he was a painter of typical figures, nudes, portraits, and primarily female portraits characterized by soft, ethereal tones, like the portrait we are offering for sale. He exhibited in Paris at the Salon des Artistes Français (1931, 1932), in London, and in Buenos Aires (Sources: Bénézit). The oil painting is in good condition, restored, cleaned, and revarnished, and presented in a beautiful carved and gilded wooden frame. Dimensions: Oil on canvas: 56 cm x 47 cm; with frame: 70 cm x 59.5 cm. Shipping: France: EUR35; EU: EUR60; other countries: EUR120
