Description

Large 19th-century triptych mirror, exquisitely crafted in mahogany (Cuban?) and marquetry, featuring a lozenge pattern on the outer doors and a superb curved frame at the top. The two doors open to reveal a wide central mirror flanked by two side mirrors, creating a triptych effect ideal for a dressing room or elegant entryway. A stable and robust piece, resting on cabriole legs, with a glossy finish that highlights the wood grain.

Dimensions: height 192cm, depth 38cm, width 101cm closed and 191cm open. The entire piece is very heavy (60-80kg).
