Description

Set of 5 Brutalist-style wall lights, Murano, 1960s
Period: 1960s
Origin: Murano
Materials: Iron and Murano glass
Description: Refined set of five Brutalist-style wall lights, made of wrought iron and Murano glass. The metal structures have a textured and irregular surface, typical of Brutalist aesthetics, which contrasts harmoniously with the elegance of the transparent, wavy glass. At the center of each wall lamp, an amber glass insert accentuates the brightness and creates an evocative play of reflections when the light is on. These lamps, made in Murano in the 1960s, are a perfect example of the meeting between artistic design and high-quality craftsmanship. Their sculptural character and strong material presence make them ideal for modern, industrial, or eclectic environments.
Dimensions: Height 36
