Description

3 Pairs of cotton and linen curtains with a floral pattern - 20th century
3 Pairs of cotton and linen curtains, printed with a naturalistic floral pattern in harmonious tones of golden yellow, redbrick, olive green and off-white on a light beige background. The decor, of botanical inspiration from the 19th century, presents a refined interlacing of flowers and foliage with a design delicate. The fabric, with its supple and natural drape, diffuses a soft light and warm, perfect for a classic interior, chic countryside or house of charm. The curtains are lined with cotton white, for a beautiful outfit and better color protection. Their heads are made in fixed sewn pleats, and they are provided with a ruflette in order to facilitate hanging on rod or rail.
