Description

A large pair of 19th-century French Sèvres vases. They are amphora-shaped with a green lid, all decorated. The front of the vases, enclosed in a gilded cartouche in relief, features romantic scenes, while the back, also enclosed in a gilded cartouche, features river landscapes. The remaining vases are completed with relief decoration in gold with leaf motifs and microbeads. The pair of vases is enriched with gilded bronze elements, all worked, such as the two side arms, the base, the cap knob, and the rings connecting the various parts of the vase.PERIOD: France, 19th centuryDIMENSIONS: H 47 cm x W 24.5 cm, base 12.5 cm x 12.5 cmCONDITION: Excellent condition
