Description

Exceptional fine earthenware dinner service from Bordeaux, Nella pattern with Japanese-inspired bird and flower motifs, different on each piece. Polychrome decorations hand-painted with extreme finesse and shimmering colors. A very harmonious composition featuring birds such as parrots and kingfishers, as well as various insects: butterflies, dragonflies, ladybugs... Delicate flowers including water lilies, lotuses, carnations, anemones, prunus, dahlias, roses, and irises... White background highlighted with a cobalt blue border. All in very good condition. Service created by the Bordeaux factory Vieillard & Cie in the 1870s in a harmonious style reminiscent of both 18th-century naturalistic porcelain and Japonisme. The Vieillard & Cie factory is renowned worldwide for its inventiveness and
