Description

Rare and superb period (N III) boat-shaped liquor cabinet. The pink glass hull is in perfect condition, with a matching pink glass reservoir and high-quality enameling featuring delicate and beautifully executed motifs. The structure is made of brass and bronze, and the stern is adorned with an anchor, a sailor, and a rudder. The roof of the barrel is painted with a decorative motif, as is the interior of the sail. A very beautiful and rare object. Good size, but the liqueur glasses are missing.
