Description

Description Federico Lloveras masterfully portrays the timeless beauty of Florence in this luminous large-format oleograph. The composition captures the city's golden architecture and the gentle curve of the Arno beneath a soft Tuscan sky, rendered with Lloveras's signature balance of texture and atmosphere. His brushwork, at once fluid and precise, builds layers of color that shimmer with Mediterranean light--ochres, siennas, and muted blues blending into a harmonious whole. The scene evokes the warmth and poetry of Italy's Renaissance heart, filtered through a modern impressionist lens. Lloveras's sensitivity to proportion, tone, and urban rhythm gives the work both structure and lyricism, reflecting his enduring fascination with Mediterranean cities.
