Description

Pair of gilt bronze candelabra with three scrolling arms and a central candle holder, for a total of four lights. Crafted in the Louis XVI style, these candelabra feature a beautiful decoration of acanthus leaves, garlands, and water leaves, finely chiseled with great precision. The fluted stems rest on ornamented circular bases, providing both stability and graceful proportions. The gilding displays a warm, rich glow, highlighting the exceptional quality of 19th-century craftsmanship. Thanks to their refined simplicity and architectural lines, these candelabra fit beautifully into both classic and contemporary interiors, adding a touch of timeless elegance. This pair combines refinement and balance, perfect for adorning a console table, a mantelpiece, or enhancing a dining table for a
