Description

A tea caddy, or natsume, for matcha tea in the tea ceremony. Made of lacquered wood covered with persimmon leaves, with a black lacquered lid. For the tea ceremony, the tea master chooses objects according to the season, guests, and events. A unique, minimalist piece, this natsume evokes winter with its persimmon leaves, a fruit traditionally enjoyed during the winter months in Japan. Artist: Nakamura Soetsu, Japan, 7.5 x 7 cm. With its original box signed by the artist.
