Description

Ornamental Hardstone Tree, China, 20th Century. This charming Chinese decorative tree, composed of flowers and leaves crafted from polished hardstones--jade, rose quartz, chalcedony, and carnelian--is delicately woven into the stems, which subtly evoke the natural movement of branches. The piece is presented in a cloisonné copper cachepot with turquoise enamel, adorned with stylized motifs and resting on gilt feet. A mid-20th-century Chinese work, in the tradition of scholar's objects and symbolic decorations of prosperity. In very good condition.
