Description

Sailing Ship at Sunset. 19th-century oil on canvas. This chiaroscuro seascape is a composition organized around a majestic sunset over a harbor. To the left, a sailing ship, perhaps a two-masted ketch, is at anchor, while to the right, sailors rest under the trees, contemplating the landscape. The approach to light is soft and rich, inviting us to marvel at the scene. This work is reminiscent of the famous Russian painter Ivan Aivazovsky. Very good condition with minor old restorations. Unframed. Signed lower right.
