Description

Napoleon III Necklace in 18k Gold and Red Coral - France, circa 1860. A delightful Napoleon III period necklace in 18k yellow gold and natural red coral, typical of the romantic and refined taste of the Second Empire. This necklace consists of a finely crafted openwork twisted gold chain supporting an elegant drape of three strands of faceted coral beads, linked by delicate gold links. The three terminal drops, also in natural red coral cut into elongated teardrop shapes, add movement and harmony to the whole. The beads, a deep and uniform red, are of excellent quality and retain their original polish. All the drops are complete and original, without any alterations or replacements. A jewel of great elegance, luminous on the neck, a testament to the refined French jewelry of the 1860s. Specifications:
