Description

Charming set of four handcrafted small benches made about 50-70 years ago, using reclaimed antique wood. The design follows 17th-century models, with solid-shaped legs and a simple, sturdy structure joined with traditional techniques, preserving the charm of rustic craftsmanship. Each bench shows slight variations in thickness, wear, and patina, revealing the handwork and giving the ensemble an authentic and organic character. Ideal for rustic interiors, country houses, or modern design projects, they can serve as seating, small side tables, or decorative elements with timeless charm. A fine example of traditional craftsmanship, blending antique materials with historical inspiration.---Dimensions (each):Width 60 cm × Depth 30 cm × Height 47 cm---Note:For further
