Description

Late 19th-century polychrome bronze sculpture of a woman's bust. A very interesting piece with a delightful and cheerful subject, enhanced by beautiful polychromy, making this sculpture truly original. Note the excellent overall condition and the lovely original patina. A high-quality subject with superb detail, evident, for example, in the intricate work of the necklace with its multiple medallions and the very expressive gaze. The artist's signature on the back is yet to be identified. A pleasing subject reminiscent of Austrian art. Shipping available to France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate of authenticity provided.
