

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Burmese Buddha Shakyamuni In Carved And Gilded Wood, Asian Art Statue, Burmese Temple

1 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Gilted wood

Description

Buddha Shakyamuni Statue in Carved and Gilded Wood, originating from Burma, 18th century. Glass Inlay. Siddhartha Gautama (Sanskrit; Pali: Siddhattha Gotama), more commonly referred to as the Buddha ("the Awakened One"), sometimes as Shakyamuni (the "sage of the Shakyas"), is a spiritual master who lived in the 6th century BC or the 5th century BC. J.-C., historical founder of a community of wandering monks who gave birth to Buddhism. He is said to have been born in Lumbini, in present-day Nepal, on the road to Kapilavastu, the capital of his family clan, in what is now the Nepalese Terai, to Mayadevi and Suddhodana, ruler of the Sakyas belonging to the Kshatriya caste of warriors and administrators, and was active in the states of Kosala and Magadha in northeastern India. He is said to have

Dealer

Le Cabinet de Mercure

Antiquaires généralistes

Mobile : 0685611842

7, place Dauphine

Rabastens 81800

lived for about eighty years, but traditions do not agree on the exact dates of his life, which modern research tends to place later and later: around 623-543 BCE according to the Theravada tradition, around 563-483 BCE. According to most early 20th-century specialists, and many in the early 21st century, parinirvana (the Buddha's death) occurred between 420 and 380 BCE.

Dimensions: 34 x 29 x 18 cm. Note: wear to the gilding, minor damage, hand to be reattached, crack on the back.