

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Arita-ware Box Set Of 5 Japanese Porcelain Tea Cups, Japan, 1980s

120 EUR

Signature : Arita Imari

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 7,2 cm

Height : 10,2 cm

Description

Elegant box set of five fine Arita porcelain tea cups, hand-painted and produced by the renowned Iwao Taizan Kiln (Otaruyama), one of the oldest studios in the Arita region -- the birthplace of Japanese white porcelain, with a history spanning over 400 years. Arita Otaryama Iwao Taizan Kiln -- Ikkyaku Shop Height: 10.2 cm Diameter: 7.2 cm Condition: New, never used, in the original box The Iwao Tozan Kiln descends from the historic Otaru Kiln, one of the earliest in Arita. Founded during the Edo period by Hachirobei Iwao, who was granted an official license (meidai fuda) to operate a porcelain kiln in Nishi-Arita, the workshop has continued through generations to uphold the Arita tradition of refined, translucent white porcelain. In the 19th and 20th centuries, as industrial production

Dealer

musee de l'ordinaire

interior designer, collector, antique dealer

Mobile : 0625415629

4 Rue Diderot

Bagnolet 93170

expanded, Arita artisans preserved their centuries-old methods while embracing innovation -- producing smaller, hand-painted wares that reflect exquisite craftsmanship and subtle aesthetic balance. Arita and Imari ware are often referred to as Japan's "White Gold", emblematic of the country's artistic spirit and timeless sense of beauty.