Description

Here is a superb early 20th-century Chinese lacquer screen. It is beautifully crafted and quite heavy. It bears a signature and features a naturalistic design. We note some damage and missing lacquer (photographed), scratches from use, and minor marks on the feet. Overall, it remains in presentable condition, but not perfect. We do not ship this type of item by post due to its size, but we work with carriers; please contact us for a quote. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the piece.
