Description

A luminous and animated landscape scene in the style of Paul Gauguin, featuring houses, trees, and a peasant woman with her dog, set against a richly colored background and rendered in a beautiful, thick enamel. This striking and decorative work is remarkably executed on two thick copper plates joined together to create a more expansive scene. A sense of poetry emanates from this beautiful enamel, with its bold colors and perfectly executed translucent effects. A magical quality pervades this generously sized panel, its masterful style reflecting the veneration of the great master in its flamboyant and rich composition. A beautiful decorative piece, this curiosity is linked to the audacity and skill of a successful composition, in very good condition and highly decorative. Late 20th century.
