Description

Bronze sculpture of a nude female bust, mid-20th century. A very beautiful sculpture in the Neoclassical style, revisited and modernized in the post-war period. It boasts a beautiful bronze-medallion patina and exquisite modeling by the artist, who skillfully combined the realism and dynamism of the subject with artistic inspiration. A monogram signature under the base is present but remains to be identified. The bust itself is a substantial size, standing 25 cm tall. This sculpture, undoubtedly produced in very limited numbers, is quite rare and will add a touch of tasteful classicism to any decor. Shipping is available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. An invoice and certificate of authenticity are provided. Collection is possible
