Description

Superb ring in 750/1000 gold and platinum, depicting a flower with openwork petals on a band composed of four strands of yellow gold, with an almost rosy hue, surmounted by a diamond in the center of a platinum setting and prong-set, surrounded by eight grain-set diamonds arranged in a corolla within the flower's petals. Remarkably lightweight and exceptionally elegant, this high-quality French piece is highly emblematic of jewelry from the 1950s and 60s. Hallmarks: eagle's head and dog's head. This piece of jewelry is offered by a professional and comes with its certificate of authenticity in a beautiful presentation box.
