Description

STAPLETON Rosé (Ireland 1951) Oil on panel, signed STAPLETON Rosé, depicting a delicate seascape with bluish hues. The artist subtly plays with the effects of mist and light, creating a soothing and highly poetic composition. The expansive, minimalist panorama highlights the horizon and a jetty extending into the sea, all rendered with great finesse. The work is presented in a modern and elegant frame with a wide mat, which perfectly showcases the composition (see photos). Specifications:
