Description

Pair of armchairs by Francis Jourdain (1876-1958). This model is widely referenced and notably present in the collections of the Centre Pompidou, as it is very representative of the Art Deco years for its architectural lines and the combination of materials. Made in France from dark-stained beech and rope. Good condition despite some stains on the seat (see photos). The frames are in very good condition. Dimensions: backrest height: 75 cm, seat height: 36 cm, seat width: 56 cm, seat depth: 63 cm.
