Description

Pair of Silver Salt Cellars - Liège 18th Century - Mathieu Gérard - Louis XVI Style with Cobalt
Glass Liners

Description:

Fine pair of 18th-century silver salt cellars from Liège, circa 1770-1790, hallmarked with the Liège city mark (Perron) and maker's mark M.G.
(Mathieu Gérard).

Elegant Louis XVI-style design with pierced rims, lion heads and garlands, standing on four feet, complete with their original cobalt-blue glass liners.

Excellent condition, no repairs or damage, hallmarks crisp and legible.

A refined and scarce example of late-18th-century silver from the Principality of Liège.
