Description

Pair of leather sofas, Saporiti Italia, 1970s
Elegant pair of sofas made by Saporiti Italia in the 1970s, upholstered in natural leather with a beautiful patina that enhances their authentic character. The soft, enveloping lines, combined with the wide and comfortable seat, reflect the typical Italian design of the period, characterized by quality craftsmanship and aesthetic research. The solid structures and generous padding offer great comfort, while details such as the satin-finish metal feet add a refined and contemporary touch. A charming set, ideal for modern or vintage interiors. Dimensions (each): L 145 x D 83 x H 74 / Seat height approx. 41 cm.
