Description

Elegant two-seater Scandinavian sofa, model no. 2432, designed by Børge Mogensen and produced by Fredericia Stolefabrik, as indicated by the original label under the seat. The frame is made of solid beechwood and upholstered in full-grain leather with a warm cognac patina, typical of Danish designs from the 1960s. The clean, balanced lines, high back, and gently curved armrests offer a seat that is both comfortable and structured, true to the designer's functionalist aesthetic. The leather has a uniform patina with consistent signs of wear, guaranteeing authenticity and vintage charm. An iconic piece of modern Danish design, combining rigor, comfort, and timeless elegance. Seat height: 44 cm
