

---

Yongzheng Chinese Porcelain Famille Rose 18th Century Wall Plaques Qing Dynasty Ca. 1735 Fencai

3 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 38.5 cm.

Width : 27.7 cm.

Description

A pair of Chinese famille rose plaques in wooden frames. Qing dynasty, Yongzheng to Qianlong period, c. 1735. Decorated in opaque overglaze enamels of the famille rose (fencai) palette with flower arrangements in vases and a wooden table, supported by tree roots, with scholars' objects surrounded by a frame of large flowers and a narrower one in green enamel. Both in a Chinese faux-bamboo wooden frame, ready to hang. Provenance: Santos London A French private collection. Lit: Illustrated in 100 Years of Chinese Export Porcelain, by A. Varela Santos, 2014/2015, cat. 74. Dimensions Length 38.5 cm, width 27.7 cm. Condition: Both in good condition. Inv. No: MW372

Dealer

Menken Works of Art

Art Asiatique

Tel : 00316-14916974

Herengracht 240

Amsterdam 1016BT