Description

Elegant, practical, and functional, this beautiful hotel hot food service will delight a family during the holidays. New from the 1990s, this unique piece of tableware boasts a rich presentation with its gilded bronze handles and feet. It features a cylinder and its inner chamber above an electric heating element. A high-quality, never-used collector's item, it comes from a prestigious palace on the French Riviera. Electrified to current standards and in pristine condition, this spare piece will be delighted to find its place in a home, making it a joy for the hostess who will find it so convenient. A beautiful and elegant serving piece, it reflects the class of its owner and will dazzle guests.
