Description

Pair of large white earthenware candlesticks by the artist, signed on the base on the back of each piece. Uncommon. Very good condition. 32 cm high x 10 cm wide x 10 cm deep. The ceramicist Bel Delecourt was born in Paris in 1915. In 1933, she obtained her degree in commercial engineering. When the Second World War broke out, Bel Delecourt moved to Quimper. She decided to "take a look around" the Henriot earthenware factory. At the same time, she enrolled in evening classes at the École des Beaux-Arts (School of Fine Arts). In 1947, she became one of the artists at the factory. Her works were already appreciated. She sought to create objects that reflected her personality. A baby formula brand launched a competition for its advertising. Bel Delecourt got to work and
