Description

A pair of watercolors depicting scenes painted en plein air in a port. One features numerous figures, both on the quayside and on the boats. The ships are shown in close-up, with the city skyline visible in the background. The second watercolor highlights two ships: a large three-masted sailing vessel and a motorboat, whose smoking funnel suggests an imminent departure. Two figures are conversing on the quayside, and a French flag occupies the center of the scene. Both watercolors are signed Louis Ricon in the lower left corner. They are in excellent condition, beautifully presented in attractive modern frames. These two watercolors are ready to hang and are highly decorative. The artwork can be viewed at the gallery (07240). Shipping: Please contact us for shipping costs within France and internationally.
