Description

A superb mantelpiece set comprising a clock and two five-light candelabra, crafted from cobalt blue porcelain enhanced with gilt and richly mounted in finely chased gilt bronze. The clock, in the form of a covered urn, features an enamel dial with numerals adorned with floral garlands and surrounded by gilt bronze decoration with scrolling foliage and female heads. The body is embellished with a hand-painted gallant scene, typical of 18th-century taste. The matching five-light candelabra share the same romantic decoration and refined finish. A fine Parisian piece, in the style of the Sèvres Manufactory, dating from the late 19th century. Dimensions:
Clock: H. 46 cm × W. 31 cm × D. 20 cm;
Candelabra: H. 58 cm × Ø 26 cm
