Description

Antique polychrome glazed ceramic votive plaque, made in Italy between the late 18th and early 19th centuries.

The work depicts a Dominican saint - San Vincenzo Ferreri - dressed in a white habit and black cloak, modeled in relief within a shaped frame decorated with geometric motifs and a gilded shell at the top.

Its craftsmanship and color palette recall the popular ceramic production of central or southern Italy.

It shows minor losses and age-related wear confirming its authenticity. A charming devotional artifact, ideal for collectors of Italian sacred art and antique ceramics.
