Description

Pair of cotton and linen curtains, printed with a naturalistic floral pattern in harmonious shades of golden yellow, brick red, olive green and off-white on a light beige background. The design, inspired by 19th-century botanical motifs, features a refined interlacing of delicately drawn flowers and foliage. The fabric, with its soft and natural drape, diffuses a gentle and warm light, perfect for a classic, country chic, or charming interior. The curtains are lined in white cotton for a beautiful drape and better color protection. They feature fixed, sewn pleats at the top and a hanging tape for easy hanging on a rod or track. Period : 20th century. Composition : cotton and linen, white cotton lining. Pattern : multicolored floral on a beige background. Finish : fixed, sewn pleats and hanging tape. Condition : very good
