Description

DescriptionPainted in 1973 by Raimon Roca, this expressive coastal scene exemplifies his mastery of color and movement within the Mediterranean landscape. Using broad, confident strokes and a radiant palette of ultramarine, coral, and violet, Roca captures the sunlit cliffs and tranquil sea with striking immediacy. The textured impasto and fluid brushwork reveal the artist's sensitivity to natural light and atmosphere, while the composition maintains an elegant balance between structure and spontaneity. This work reflects the height of Catalan colourist impressionism in the 1970s, merging plein air vitality with refined chromatic harmony. A vivid and sophisticated piece that enhances any modern or classic setting.ArtistRaimon Roca (b.1933) is recognized for his expressive depictions of the
