Description

Description This expressive oil painting portrays a peaceful village framed by tall trees beneath a radiant sky. Executed with vigorous impasto brushwork, the surface reveals thick, confident layers of green, ochre, and blue, giving depth and movement to the composition. The clustered rooftops and shifting foliage capture the luminous character of the Mediterranean countryside, balancing texture and harmony in a way typical of mid-20th-century Catalan landscape painting. The work's vivid palette and balanced spatial arrangement suggest an accomplished artist with a refined sense of atmosphere and light. Artist Signed, artist presently unidentified. Artist Details Although the signature remains indecipherable, stylistic and technical traits link the painting to the Catalan
