Description

This vintage hand-knotted Persian Heriz rug embodies the timeless artistry of Northwest Iran's weaving heritage. Featuring a commanding central medallion, the rug's geometric composition is accentuated by a bold palette of deep crimson, emerald green, indigo, and ivory. The dense wool pile reflects the natural sheen of hand-spun fibres, revealing subtle tonal variations that enhance the piece's authenticity and age. Intricate angular motifs and stylized floral forms radiate across the field and borders, demonstrating the classic balance and strength of Heriz craftsmanship. With its striking design, durable construction, and enduring colour harmony, this vintage Persian rug serves as a distinguished statement piece for both contemporary and traditional
