Description

Souvenir of the Grand Tour - patinated bronze bust after the Antique, mounted on a triangular marble base engraved with "POMPEI," Neapolitan work, late 19th-early 20th century, Neapolitan foundry near Chiurazzi. An evocative and rare piece, typical of sales to travelers in Pompeii/Herculaneum. Bronze bust with a beautiful dark brown patina, representing Antinous/Bacchus in bust form, with a dynamic modeling, detailed locks of hair, and a sketched chest; antique mounting on a veined yellow marble base, carved in a truncated pyramid shape, the front engraved with "POMPEI" and highlighted with gold. A souvenir cast known as a Grand Tour, attributed to a Neapolitan manufactory active around 1880-1900, near or by the Fonderia Artistica Chiurazzi. The object
