Description

Pair of Majolica Plates with Carnation Decoration
Manufactured by Ferniani Faenza, painted in polychrome, in shades of blue, brown, yellow, red, orange and green. Inside the rim is the so-called carnation decoration with the flower standing out on its long sinuous stem; a narrow band with lattice segments and flowering twigs frames the central motif and marks the transition to the rim, which is decorated with two alternating floral compositions. Two fillets mark the edge of the composition of these two antique 18th-century majolica plates, 20 cm in diameter. Faenza, third quarter of the 1700s, in good condition.
