Description

Magnificent and imposing Modernist/Design style chandelier from the mid-20th century, highly representative of the 1970s. This spectacular lighting fixture follows in the footsteps of creations by Gino Sarfatti for Flos (model 2097) or so-called "Sputnik" designs, featuring a central tubular structure in solid brass from which multiple arms radiate. This model features a total of 30 arms/lights, creating a spectacular luminous constellation effect. The aesthetic is both sophisticated and raw, with the black electrical wires visibly and elegantly curving towards the sockets. Materials: Solid brass, metal, black Bakelite sockets. Style: Mid-Century Design, Modernism, Italian Vintage. Detailed Dimensions Maximum Diameter: 100 cm (39.37 inches) Total Height
