

18th-century Double-bottle Shagreen Dressing Set With Fly Box

1 150 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Shagreen

Width : 6,3cm

Height : 8,1cm

Depth : 3cm

Description

This rare shagreen vanity case has two compartments. The first contains: - Two crystal bottles with silver stoppers, complete with their small emery-polished inner stoppers. - An ivory notebook with a green-tinted cover, containing four ivory pages and a silver hinge ferrule. - A green-tinted ivory screw-top pencil case with a silver-gilt pencil holder (present and original!). The second compartment is a fly box, fitted with a mirror framed in embossed metallic paper and lined with pink satin. Unidentified hallmarks on the silver stoppers. Silver or silver-plated hinges and push buttons. COMPLETE AND IN EXCELLENT CONDITION! 18th century, circa 1770. Dimensions: 8.1cm x 6.3cm x 3cm.

Weight: 102g

Dealer

Le Bel Escargot

petits objets anciens de collection

Mobile : +33 630945528

Orgerus 78910