Description

This lithograph, "The Beautiful Country of Brittany - Boats at Anchor in Tréboul," is signed Henri Rivière and bears a red stamp in the lower right corner. The work is authentic and antique. The lithograph is in very good condition, the colors are perfect. Henri Rivière (1864-1951) was a French painter, engraver, and illustrator. He began his career with drawing, then moved on to intaglio engraving, specifically etching, in 1882. Simultaneously, in 1886, he embarked on a career as a director and set designer, creating shadow puppet shows at the Chat Noir cabaret, performances which he enhanced by designing highly innovative, colorful sets. He then devoted himself exclusively to painting and engraving, establishing himself in the history of etching, printmaking, wood engraving, lithography, and
