Description

Pair of Gilt Bronze Fire Dogs - Louis XVI Style - Late 19th Century
Superb pair of gilt bronze fire dogs, richly decorated in the Louis XVI style. Each piece features a flame vase, garlands, rosettes, and an openwork gallery, all characteristic of the neoclassical vocabulary. The bronze work is fine, precise, and of very high quality, typical of late 19th-century French production. The undulating bases rest on sculpted feet, lending elegance and presence to the whole. These fire dogs are a remarkable decorative piece, perfect for enhancing a fireplace and complementing a classic or Haussmann-style mantelpiece. Dimensions: Fire dogs: Height 33 cm / Width 31 cm / Depth 8 cm. Central bar: Length 64 cm. Period: Late 19th century (circa 1880-1900). Material: Gilt bronze. Condition:
